

Master Class Cooking

Convivial moment
in the company of a
Chef

What is it ?

With our Master Class Cooking, your teams will experience what team building can achieve, even at a distance!

In the presence of our in-house chef, you will cook sweet and savoury dishes, or any other recipe of your choice.

Our main aim is to provide the group with a culinary and gourmet experience. To further the experience, it is possible to have the participants collaborate on the creation of a new recipe that they will have to present to the rest of the group with a name, a slogan and a commercial pitch.
